Hi Eltjo,

Now I know your personality well after your last mail, I advise you not speak with intimidation if you want to get good handle of following things. Otherwise I will stop any contact with you, and let my attorney contact you completely!

I will follow the contract, to pay what need to pay, no one coin less, and no one coin more too.

Back to the amount and payment term you mentioned, I can not agree with it at all. You want me pay you at one time, but who can promise me I can get the sales and amount in future 5 years? Even the closed company, you want me pay you commission?

I have already hired local attorney, he will present me to deal with the following things. Another point, unless we could make sure the receipt of payments from Hasco directly to Chen Wey account, shipments would be not effected otherwise.

Mr. Hsieh
